

FISCAL NOTE

HB 1006 - SB 1006

March 10, 2003

SUMMARY OF BILL: Prohibits workers' compensation payments for any period of disability resulting from injury during which the worker is confined in a jail or correctional institution.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease State Revenues - Less than $25,000

Decrease Local Govt. Expenditures - Less than $25,000

Decrease Local Govt. Revenues - Less than $25,000

Assumes:

- work release inmates who are injured on the job will not receive compensation for lost wages during the period of disability which would normally be deposited to the inmate's trust fund and used for reimbursement for room and board, criminal injury compensation fund fee and other court ordered payments such as child support.
- if a local government employs the inmate on work release, the provision will decrease payments from the Risk Management Pool.
